Application from

A mobile application interface for submitting an application. The screen has a light gray background and a blue header bar. The header bar contains a back arrow icon and the text 'Application From'. Below the header, there are four labeled input fields: 'Name:', 'Address:', 'Phone number:', and 'Reason:'. Each label is in bold black text, and each input field is a white rectangle with a thin gray border. At the bottom of the form is a green rectangular button with the word 'Submit' in white bold text. The top of the screen shows a status bar with the time '9:41', signal strength, Wi-Fi, and battery icons. A blue home indicator bar is visible at the very bottom.
